

Investment Philosophy

We believe the strategy may achieve attractive risk-adjusted long-term returns, with an emphasis on price stability, limiting risk and seeking to preserve liquidity.

Investment Strategy

- Seeks a long-term, risk-averse approach, to equal or outperform the benchmark on the upside, and outperform it on the downside.
- Focuses on high credit quality securities.
- Diversifies across all principal sectors of the U.S. bond market.
- Tactically manages interest rate risk and yield curve positioning.
- Adds value through sector rotation, issuer analysis, and individual security selection.

Product Highlights

- Emphasis on credit quality, diversification and sector rotation.
- Integrates quantitative and fundamental analysis.
- Yield curve positioning for future Fed and economic trends.

The Core Fixed Income Composite objective is to provide maximum long-term total return consistent with reasonable risk to principal, by investing primarily in mortgage-backed securities and medium-term fixed income securities issued by the U.S. Treasury, U.S. Government agencies, other agencies or debt obligations of domestic companies.

The Bloomberg US Aggregate Index is composed of securities from Bloomberg US Government/Corporate Bond Index, Mortgage-Backed Securities Index, and the Asset-Backed Securities Index. Total return comprises price appreciation/depreciation and income as a percentage of the original investment. One cannot invest directly in an index.
