

Investment Philosophy

We believe a diversified strategy of undervalued stocks with above-average potential for price appreciation may achieve long-term capital appreciation.

Investment Strategy

- Applies multi-factor quantitative screens to identify and rank stocks with valuations below sector averages.
- Conducts fundamental research to identify positive earnings trends and other potential catalysts for price appreciation.
- Screens and reevaluates holdings on an ongoing basis, applying a rigorous sell discipline.

Product Highlights

- Focus on companies with value characteristics plus strong fundamentals.
- Disciplined, consistent investment process integrating fundamental and quantitative approaches.
- Value and fundamentals-based sector rotation.

The Equity Income Composite objective is to invest in a diversified portfolio of common and preferred stocks that reward shareholders with dividend income. Companies held in the portfolio will be among industry leaders in dividend yield and possess the ability to raise the payout to shareholders over time.

The S&P 500 Index consists of 500 widely held common stocks. This unmanaged index is a total return index with dividends reinvested. One cannot invest directly in an index.
