

Investment Philosophy

We believe that investor biases often lead to disconnects between a company's intrinsic value and its current price.

Investment Objective

Create an actively managed portfolio invested in undervalued, higher-quality stocks, with company specific catalysts seeking to outperform the benchmark over a full market cycle.

Key tenets of our approach

- We believe active management can add value within inefficient asset classes
- We believe positive earnings is an important measure of corporate quality
- A non-benchmark centric approach results in high active share
- Independent fundamental research leverages multi-factor quantitative screens
- Long term investment horizon supported by a consistent, repeatable process

The Small Cap Equity Composite objective is to provide maximum long-term total return consistent with reasonable risk to principal, by investing primarily in common stocks with market capitalization at the time of purchase less than the maximum capitalization permitted for a stock in the Russell 2000 Index.

The Russell 2000 Index is an unmanaged, market value weighted index, which measures performance of the 2,000 companies that are between the 1,000th and 3,000th largest in the market. One cannot invest directly in an index.
